EL PASO, Tex., March 7.-A westbound passenger train on the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio Railroad jumped a CHIEF, curve three miles west of Maxson, on the El Paso and Sanderson Division, at 3 o'clock this morning, and plunged into a ravine.

> Late reports are that thirty-eight persons were killed and as many more injured.

The wreckage immediately caught fire.

Nine coaches and a baggage car were burned. Only one coach in the train escaped destruction, and this was occupied by forty Meagre details have been received. Up to 10 o'clock, it is said, fifteen unidentified dead bodies had been taken out. The wreck was caused by a broken rail. The cars imme-chapter XIII., St. Paul's Epistles to diately began burning, and the station agent at Tabor, seven miles away, saw the reflection of the flames and went to the scene as fast as a hand-ear would take him. Passengers who were able to get out were running hither and thither, frantic in their efforts to rescue the injured.

It is reported that many of the victims were pinioned in the debris and were burned to death.

MOST VICTIMS IN DAY COACHES.

It is thought that few passengers in the two day coaches were saved as both cars were piled on top of the baggage and express cars and were first to catch fire. The Pullman and tourist sleeping-car passengers were rescued from the flames, and if reports are true none was killed on these care, al-

But three names of the killed are reported. They are Engineer A, L. Mast, Fireman Henry Bertsch, Express Messenger Adams. Every other trainman except Conductor Stockwell was injured.

Owing to the fact that the wreck is so far away from a telegraph station the only reports to reach here are over the Galveston, Harrisburg & San Antonio lines, and the first was the conductor's report to the chief despatcher. As soon as it was received a wrecking train with Supt. Martin and all the available surgeons hurried to the scene, leaving here at 5.30, with a ceven hours' run before them. Surgeons and nurses were also picked up at all way A still later report says sixteen bodies have been recovered. Many of the passengers were on their way to California. A few were from here.

and covered up with the debris of the splintered coaches. The first coach was filled with immigrants and nearly all of them perished. Seven other cars were overturned, but a private car, attached to the rear end, occupied by a New York capitalist named Ryan, did not leave the track.

SEVEN MILES FROM TELEGRAPH STATION.

Conductor Stockwell, who reported the a cident, walked seven miles to the disaster to the Superintendent's office here

The wreck occurred at a remote point 200 miles east of this place in the rugged mountains. The train jumped the track on a reverse curve which skirts a ravine. It had just descended a grade two miles in length and was running at a high rate of speed when it struck the curve. Day had not broken and most of the passengers were still aslep.

Presumably Thomas F. Ryan's Car.

The private car containing the New York capitalists is presumably the car of Thomas F. Ryan. Vice-President of the Morton Trust Company. At Mr. Ryan's office, it is said that he left here last Sunday accompanied by his wife and twelve-year-old son for New Orleans, intending to go west from there to California.
